

PRIVACY POLICY

Scope

JVJSM Pty Ltd trading as Stafflink Workforce Management acknowledges The Australian Privacy Principals (APP's) outlined in the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012 and the Privacy Act 1988.

This condensed Policy applies to personal information collected by Stafflink Workforce Management. We collect, store and disclose personal information in line with these principals. We only collect personal information which is reasonably necessary for one or more of our functions or activities.

Personal information is broadly defined in the Privacy Act as information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable:

- Whether the information or opinion is true or not
- Whether the information or opinion is recorded in a material form or not.

The Privacy Act 1988 includes a subset of personal information called 'sensitive information' to which higher privacy standards apply. Higher standards apply because inappropriate handling of this kind of information can have adverse consequences for the individual concerned. In some circumstances, Stafflink Workforce Management may collect and hold sensitive information. Sensitive information is defined as information or an opinion about an individual's:

- Racial or ethnic origin
- Political opinions
- Membership of a political association
- Religious beliefs or affiliations
- Philosophical beliefs
- Membership of a professional or trade association
- Membership of a trade union
- Sexual orientation or practices
- Criminal record
- Health information about an individual
- Genetic information or biometric information and templates.
