Mark 10:35-45

FIRST READING

Isaiah 53:10-11

The Lord has been pleased to crush
his servant with suffering.

If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord
wishes will be done.

His soul's anguish over, he shall see
the light and be content.

By his sufferings shall my servant
justify many, taking their faults on himself.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 32:4-5, 18-20, 22

*Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.*

SECOND READING

Hebrews 4:14-16

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy

from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mk 10:45

Alleluia, alleluia!

*The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all.
Alleluia!*

GOSPEL

Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee,
approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said
to him 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them.
'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them,
'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

October around Australia is the Catholic Mission Appeal, with its theme inspired by “Acts 4:20 For we cannot keep from speaking about what we have seen and heard”. This year our appeal focuses on the work of the Church in Thailand, reaching out to those women and children of the mothers and babies home run by the Good Shepherd Sisters, whilst supporting work in over 1100 diocese worldwide and 14 parishes within Australia. Please support Catholic Mission via envelopes, QR code on the envelope will take you straight to a donation page, online catholicmission.org.au/Thailand or visit our website for general donations.

A special collection will be taken up in St Luke's parish next weekend.

For we CANNOT KEEP FROM SPEAKING about what we have SEEN & HEARD
ACTS 4:20

Next week Catholic Mission will invite you to partner with Sister Chalaad and the Good Shepherd Sisters in Thailand as they reach out to vulnerable mothers, like Churai*, and their babies, who would have nowhere to turn when they need support, love and kindness the most.

Next week you will have the opportunity to respond to what you have seen and heard, and the Home, as well as other vital mission programs supporting children and communities in need around the world.

Please come with an open and generous heart.

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them, 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt.

This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all.

For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

PROMISE ME THIS

"Mum, I want to ask you a favour. Promise you'll say yes?" "Wait a minute, dear. I can't say yes until I know what you're asking me. So, what is it?" "I'm afraid to tell you because I know you'll say 'no' and I need you to say 'yes'. So just say 'yes,' OK?" "No!"

Have you ever had a conversation like that with your kids? It's common enough. Kids want what they want when they want it and don't want to submit to the wisdom of their parent's authority. A couple of the apostles acted like that with Jesus. James and John, the sons of Zebedee, had the authority to say to Jesus, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you". They had plans for themselves. They wanted to reserve prime spots for themselves in Jesus' kingdom. They had no idea what they were asking. They just thought about what they were going to get, not what they would need to give - which is everything including their very lives.

Sometimes that's true with our children. They have no idea of the consequences involved in what they're asking from us. As parents we need to guide them along the way, being neither too quick to say yes or no.

The Commissioning: As disciples of Jesus, serve faithfully during the coming week. We will ready ourselves by praying before we venture out. We will share our hopes and plans with our faith community friends. We will look compassionately at the needs of family and friends. We will identify neighbourhood needs that can be realistically met. We will learn about national and international justice issues and advocate to bring change. Be good to yourselves. Be quiet before God and spend time in your safe and peaceful space.

GPBS eNews

EXPLORING THE WORD

On three occasions, Jesus has told his disciples of his approaching passion and death. Here James and John enthusiastically, if somewhat naively, commit themselves to following him in drinking the cup and undergoing the baptism that Jesus faces. Do they really understand the cost of discipleship? Their question to Jesus would indicate that they have still not fully grasped what it means to follow Jesus. They want him to do their will rather than them doing the will of the Father. They still seem to be thinking in terms of a political and earthly kingdom, where power and riches will come to those who are in special places of favour at the right and left hand of the ruler. Instead, Jesus offers them a share in his suffering and death. The other disciples too display their human weakness in their indignation that they may be left out. Jesus tries again to make it clear to his foolish disciples that their view of the world, locked as it is in their earthly experience, is not how God plans things to be.
