Introduction

In light of the embedded Advantaged Thinking framework, Ohana College (the College) views complaints as part of an important feedback and accountability process. Further, the College understands that not all persons are able to comfortably or eloquently articulate issues they are having to those who are in a position of perceived or actual power over them.

The College is committed to ensuring that student, parent, carer and staff complaints and disputes are dealt with in a responsive, efficient, effective and fair way. The College acknowledges the right of students, parents/carers and staff to complain when dissatisfied with an action, inaction or decision of the College and the College encourages constructive criticism and complaints. The College recognises that time spent on handling complaints can be an investment in better service to students, parents/carers and staff. The College will provide any extra support that may be needed for any indigenous person wishing to make a complaint on the same basis as any other person.

Complaints That May Be Resolved Under This Policy

The College encourages students, parents/carers and staff to promptly lodge any concerns regarding sexual harassment, child protection, discrimination, workplace bullying and privacy breaches as well as more general complaints that include areas such as:

- the College, its staff or students having:
 - done something wrong;
 - failed to do something they should have done; and/or
 - acted unfairly or impolitely;
- issues of student or staff behaviour that is contrary to their relevant Code of Conduct;
- issues related to learning programs, assessment and reporting of student learning;
- issues related to communication with students, parents/carers or between staff;
- issues related to College fees and payments; or
- general administrative issues.

Student complaints may be brought by students or by parents/carers on behalf of their children, as appropriate in the circumstances.
