

Deaf Awareness Training

Benefits of Deaf Awareness Training

Deaf Awareness Training is relevant for professionals, public servants, service providers, health providers, students and anyone with an interest in the Deaf community.

Deaf Awareness Training will build personal and organisational capacity by:

- Optimising business strategies through effective communication with employees, customers/clients and social connections who are Deaf or hard of hearing.
- Minimising risk to your organisation by ensuring your communications are delivered in an appropriate format to facilitate understanding of and compliance with the information.
- Ensuring Deaf people are afforded the right of access to information in an appropriate format (Auslan).
