

The English Teachers
Association of Queensland Inc.
Providing professional support and advocacy for English teachers

Nostalgia fiction

Follow us!

@etaql #etaqpd
f i g t x

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
				1 Make a list of the books you read as a child/young adult and remember fondly.	2 	3 Re-visit a read you remember fondly; start reading this again.
4 	5 What is it about the book that has resonated and stayed with you?	6 	7 How has the story aged? Is it timeless or reflective of its time?	8 	9 Has this particular book influenced subsequent books you have read?	10
11 Re-visit a book from your childhood. Share this book with a child you know.	12 	13 What is it about this book that appealed to you?	14 	15 How does the language of the book differ from children's literature today?	16 	17 Find a whimsical or heart-felt quote and create this into bookmarks or cards.
18 	19 Find a third book that you re-read often.	20 	21 What are the lessons you have learned from this book?	22 	23 Why do you return to this book again and again?	24
25 Is there a link between the books you read then and the books you read now?	26 	27 Have you passed on your books from childhood to your children?	28 	29 Share with a friend your 'trip down memory lane' and what you have learned this time.	30 	December reading:  Celebrations