Welcome back to last term of 2019!

Back from the holidays feeling relaxed and ready to go? We are ready to launch into the last term with some wonderful events and workshops. Our lovely coordinator is on well deserved long service leave and Chenoa is here filling in until she returns on Wednesday 6th November.

This is our first newsletter on new branding header and footer. We are methodically working through to roll out the name change. We hope you love it as much as we do.

Groat Street Festival is coming up - see the flyer attached below. They are looking for donations of toys and children's clothes for the swap stall. Any donations please bring the first week of playgroup. The donation box will be in the office.

Fun Friday Nites & Bites

Friday 1st November
4.00pm - 6.00pm

Don't forget our bimonthly Fun Friday night. To coincide with Seniors week please bring a plate and a grandparent or senior who is significant in your life. If you've missed this gorgeous program "Old peoples home for 4 year olds" showing the lovely friendships between residents in aged care and 4 year old children. View the trailer here. Just beautiful!
