

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

World Day of the Poor (November 18)

Blind Beggar Bartimaeus suffers from social exclusion in world of progress.

I find it moving to know that many poor people identify with the blind beggar Bartimaeus mentioned by the evangelist Mark (cf. 10.46-52). Bartimaeus “was sitting by the roadside to beg” (v.46); having heard that Jesus was passing by, “he began to cry out and say, ‘Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me.’” (v.47) “Many rebuked him, telling him to be silent; but he cried out all the more,” (v.48)

The Son of God heard his plea and said: “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said to him, “Master, let me receive my sight.” (v. 51)[...] Bartimaeus is a poor person who finds himself lacking things as essential as sight and the ability to work for a living. How many people today feel in the same situation! Lack of basic means of subsistence, marginalization due to a reduced capacity for work, various forms of social enslavement, despite all our human progress[...]

How many poor people today are like Bartimaeus, sitting on the roadside and looking for meaning in their lives! How many of them wonder why they have fallen so far and how they can escape! They are waiting for someone to come up to them and say: “Take heart; rise, he is calling you.” (v. 49)

Sadly, the exact opposite often happens, and the poor hear voices scolding them, telling them to be quiet and to put up with their lot. These voices are harsh, often due to fear of the poor, who are considered not only destitute but also a source of insecurity and unrest, an unwelcome distraction from life as usual and needing to be rejected and kept afar. We tend to create a distance between them and us, without realizing that in this way we are distancing ourselves from the Lord Jesus, who does not reject the poor, but calls them to himself and comforts them.

Continuation of Father David Series “Rejoice and Be Glad!”

The Pope believes that holiness is not only possible for everyone but that God calls all of us to holiness. Father David Warren will continue to lead us in an exploration of the Pope's letter on Tuesday, 20th from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the parish hall. All are welcome. This is the last session.

“The Child is Father of the Man”

In preparation for Advent, Fr. David Warren will lead us in a re-reading of the stories of the birth of childhood of Jesus on four Tuesday evenings (November 13, November 20, November 27, and December 4) from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the parish hall.

The stories of the birth and childhood of Jesus tell us more about the Man than they do about the Child.

Discover the Man in the Child Jesus this Christmas.

NOVEMBER

The month of November offers us an opportunity to pray for our deceased. As well, we are encouraged to pray for the souls in purgatory. During the month of November, parishioners are welcome to write the names of their beloved deceased in the Book of Remembrance near the altar. They will be remembered at all Masses throughout the month of November.

NOVEMBER 18, 2018

Dear Parishioners:

A special thank you to all who visited the religious articles table last weekend and offered donations for the various items that were for sale; proceeds went to support the Hanna family who we sponsored to Canada last June. The total raised was close to $3,000; the family is very grateful for your generous support as they continue to settle in Toronto.

On that note, next weekend (on the Feast of Christ the King) we will introduce our annual Development and Peace Campaign; the theme for this year is: "Share the Journey"; it highlights the root causes of forced migration. No one should be forced to flee their home.

The main call to action for the Development and Peace Campaign this year is the signing of an Action card that will be mailed to the Canadian government asking to do more to tackle the root causes of forced migration.

Some of the causes for migration include violence, persecution based on religion or ethnicity, extreme poverty, and often environmental causes (drought, famine, natural disasters, such as climate change, etc.)

I invite parishioners to read the enclosed pamphlet highlighting this initiative. Action cards will be provided in the pews next weekend. Thank you for your interest and support.

I wish to acknowledge the Development and Peace Committee of our parish and I thank them for their great work in helping us to be more informed of social justice initiatives.

God Bless. Let us keep one another in prayer.

Fr. Pat
