

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“WHAT MUST I do?” asked the rich man. Jesus’ answer is a challenge. It is not just one more thing the man must add to his ‘to do’ list, but the essential thing. Jesus asks him to give up everything and follow him. It is not a simple question or a simple answer. The rich man had accomplished much and was ready to do more. But Jesus’ reply knocks the wind out of his sails. Jesus is calling the man, and us, to trust more deeply – to sacrifice and be transformed.

It is easy to get caught up in depending upon ourselves, but our relationship with Jesus calls us to a radical trust. Give up our plans, our back-up plans, our safety nets and our stockpiles. Put Jesus first and let everything else go. Until we lay down our lives, we are still serving only in part.

Jesus’ answer, said with love, convicts the man of holding back. His words shock the man out of his illusion that he is on his way to eternal life, for “the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword” – he must accept the challenge to go deeper. It is no easy thing – he must sacrifice everything to follow Jesus. It seemed impossible to him. What happened to the man? Did he accept the challenge? Do we? For with God, “all things are possible.”

Father David Hosts a New Series

“Rejoice and Be Glad!”

Do you ever get the feeling that other people are more holy than you are? Do you ever get the feeling that the spiritual life is something that other people have, but not you?

Earlier this year, Pope Francis released Gaudete et Exsultate (“Rejoice and be Glad!”), an exhortation to holiness in today’s world. The Pope believes that holiness is not only possible for everyone but that God calls all of us to holiness. Father David Warren will lead us in an exploration of the Pope’s letter on Tuesday, October 16th, from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the parish hall. This series will resume on October 30th for another four weeks. All are welcome.
