

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

CHRISTIANITY IS OFTEN castigated for teaching that God is an angry God whose wrath at human sin required a perfect human sacrifice to appease his bad temper. And we can even admit that some Christians do misrepresent the gospel in this way. But today's readings tell a different story.

It is not God who demands the death of the innocent, but us. The reading from Wisdom lays bare the human response to innocence. It can make us uncomfortable. And so, when God comes to us as an innocent man, we cannot bear his presence and we crucify him.

In the letter of James, and in today's Gospel, we see the human dynamics that underlie our propensity to sacrifice the innocent. But we also see Christ's answer to those dynamics. If we are not to be people who sacrifice the innocent, we must be, as James says "peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy," or, as Jesus says, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all."

The sacrifice we offer at Mass today, then, is not an innocent victim presented to an angry God, but a loving victim who offered himself to God precisely by offering himself to us, even as we "condemned him to a shameful death." (Reflection by Brett Salheld, from Living with Christ)

Father David Hosts a New Series

"Rejoice and Be Glad!"

Do you ever get the feeling that other people are more holy than you are? Do you ever get the feeling that the spiritual life is something that other people have, but not you?

Earlier this year, Pope Francis released Gaudete et Exsultate ("Rejoice and be Glad!"), an exhortation to holiness in today's world. The Pope believes that holiness is not only possible for everyone but that God calls all of us to holiness.

Father David Warren will lead us in an exploration of the Pope's letter on four Tuesday mornings (September 25, October 2, October 9, October 16) from 10:30 to 11:30 am in the parish hall. All are welcome!

Music Ministry – Exciting News!

We are looking for new members, young and older, for existing and new opportunities. Main choir – Sunday,

Looking for both singers and instrumentalists. Cantoring: If you sing but cannot commit on a weekly basis, perhaps monthly, consider offering your musical voice to sing the Psalm at Mass. Adults and teenagers (Grade 9 and up) welcome. Training provided. News about Children's Choir special events will be forthcoming in a few weeks. Please contact Marc Michalak on any of these interests at: marcfmichalak@gmail.com

SACRAMENT REGISTRATIONS

Students attending our Catholic schools, public or private schools, and those who wish to be prepared for the Sacraments of First Reconciliation, First Holy Communion, or

While the priest works closely with the students and teachers at the Catholic schools, the church is the primary place of registration since the Sacraments are celebrated at the parish where the students attend Mass. Below are the dates and times for this year's registration. At each of the Registration Nights, Fr. Pat will outline the program of study for the respective schools and for those attending public and private schools. For students attending public schools, classes will be held at St. Edward's Church. A schedule will be provided on Registration Night. If parents have questions or concerns, please contact our Sacramental Coordinator Jessica Bews at stedwardyouthministry@gmail.com
