

Workshop on Creative Fidelity Formula of Commitment

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, in your presence and moved by the spirit of faith and zeal, we renew our Covenant with you.

We, lay persons, Brothers and Sisters, aware of our Christian vocation inspired by the charism of St. John Baptist de La Salle, commit ourselves to associate and live in communion as a Lasallian Family.

We promise:

- To form communities that are open, inclusive, creative and faithful to our heritage; that visualize and respond to the needs of the future.
- To strengthen our communities in prayer, joy and fidelity to the charism of our Founder.
- To give creative responses to the challenges of new realities, walking together with those most in need and accompanying all those entrusted to our care.
- To be living witnesses of Jesus, with the poor, "together and by association".

God of fidelity, who "wants all human beings to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth", give us the strength of your Spirit so that we may be faithful to this commitment and thus collaborate in the evangelizing task entrusted to us by your Son Jesus. We ask this of Our Lady of the Star, queen and mother of the Christian Schools.

In faith, of which we signed it in Rome on May 15, 2019, the Lasallian Jubilee Year of the Tricentenary.
