

2018 POST INTERCAPITULAR LEADERSHIP PRIORITIES

a guide for reflection

how does the Vision-Mission of the District compare with the expression below?

VISION and MISSION

We are called to be an Institute that is a leading global spiritual and educational resource in an increasingly secular and pluralistic world.

The purpose of this Institute is to provide young people, and especially the poor, with a human and Christian education, in accordance with the ministry entrusted to it by the Church (Rule, 3).

how does the community or educational work measure with the expression above?

IDENTITY

We are called and committed:

To deepening our identity in commitment to association for mission and living communally the Lasallian charism in the many educational works entrusted to us.

To what extent have we used the Lasallian identity and Association criteria found in Circular 461 in our discussions and discernment?

Who are we?

ASSOCIATION FOR MISSION

We are called and committed:

- To living association for the educational service with the poor through the development of a pedagogy for Circular 461 at local levels.
- To participating in the Beyond the Borders projects.
- To following the directions set by CIAMEL.

PASTORAL MINISTRY OF VOCATIONS AND YOUTH

We are called and committed:

As a Lasallian Family

- To promoting a culture of vocations in our educational works with a target of developing and sustaining Lasallian programs centered on the Lasallian story and charism for all stakeholders;
- To ensuring a greater effectiveness of the pastoral ministry of vocations and youth in all our educational works.

To what extent have we made our educational communities as a space where the “culture of vocations” is fostered and developed for all stakeholders?

FORMATION AND ACCOMPANIMENT

We are called and committed:

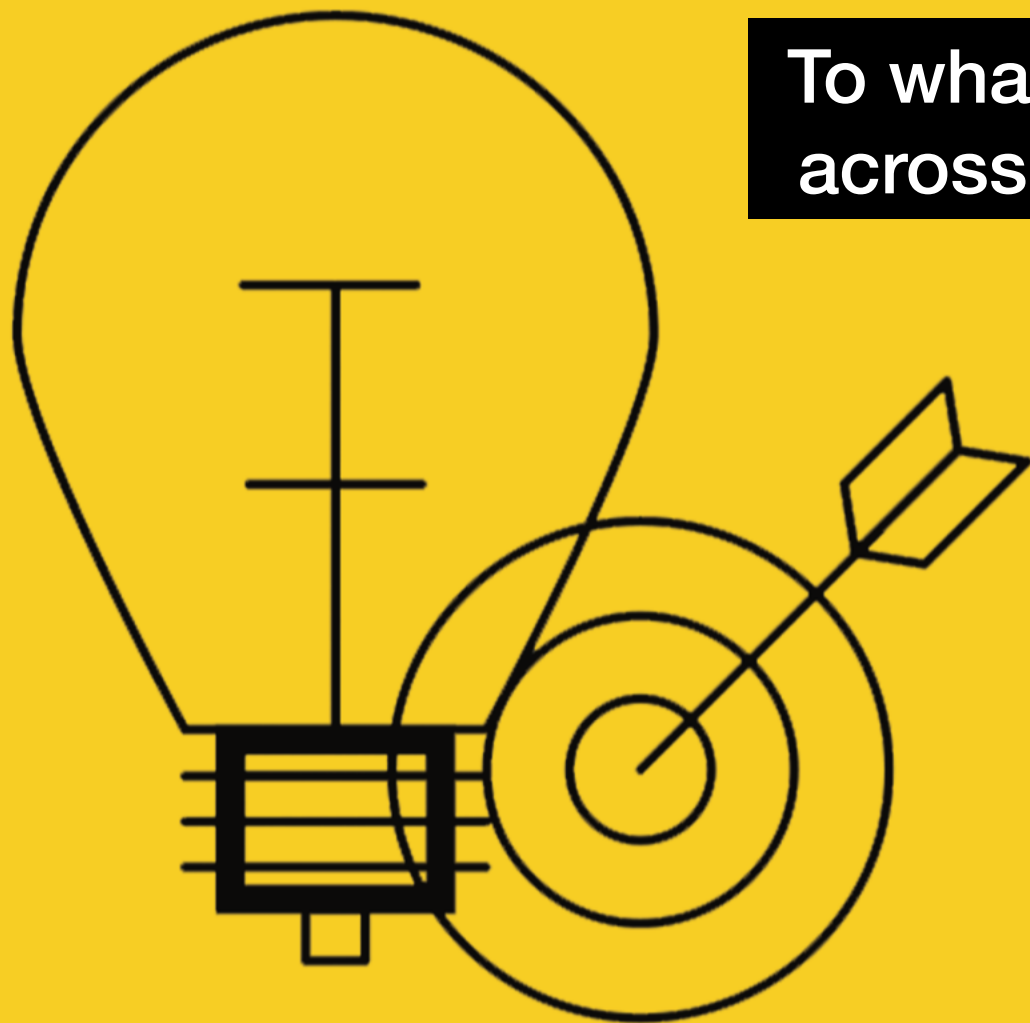

- To establishing ongoing formation and accompaniment programs in our Districts and Regions that guide and mentor the next generation of Lasallians in providing educational services to the poor.

To what extent are our formation and accompaniment programs comprehensive, sequential, and ongoing?

SHARED GOVERNANCE AND ANIMATION

To what extent is there voice and vote for Lasallians across different areas of Lasallian life and mission?

We are called and committed:

- To supporting co-responsibility through shared governance and animation in sustaining effective administration, achieving set goals, and delivering quality services across different areas of Lasallian life and mission.

LEADERSHIP AND ANIMATION

We are called and committed:

- To finding effective leadership and animation structures that best expresses collegial authority, subsidiarity and solidarity in the service of the Lasallian Mission. (Regions, IALU, UMAEL, CIAMEL...);
- To animating and accompanying the Visitors in their leadership role and their involvement in the Region and beyond.

To what extent are the structures indicative of the diversity of Lasallian stakeholders in terms of skills, expertise, and representation?

LIFE AND COMMUNITY OF THE BROTHERS

We are called and committed:

- To ensuring ongoing effective animation, renewal, and transformation of our communities and life as a Brother;
- To serving as effective communities of presence, witness and service.

To what extent have the Brothers and their communities have grown in their witness and service?

STEWARDSHIP OF RESOURCES

We are called and committed:

- To ensuring greater transparency and accountability in managing and growing our financial resources in the service of the Lasallian mission;
- To increasing the fund for Institute projects that directly serve the poor.

To what extent have we been good stewards of the resources of our communities, educational works, and the District?
