

Home Modifications Australia (MOD.A)- Business Plan 2018-19

Vision: MOD.A is the custodian of best practice in home modifications in Australia.

OBJECTIVES	1. Secure funding for a national peak body representing the home modifications industry, with a full-time secretariat	2. Provide oversight and guidance on best practice to the home modifications industry	3. Promote best practice in home modifications to governments and their departments, and to the general public	4. Increase the breadth and depth of MOD.A's membership
RELATED ACTIVITIES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify and source funding from non-government services • Seek government funding to carry on current functions of MOD.A and additional project tasks 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop a quality assurance/accreditation system • Establish collaborative relationships with relevant university departments and other academic bodies to inform best practice • Provide members with advice on best practice • Develop training for builders and tradespeople 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop and/or maintain strategic relationships with state and national bodies representing older people and people with disability • Establish collaborative relationships with state and national housing peak bodies and others associated with affordable housing • Identify issues for home modification providers • Promote the importance and benefits of home modifications • Influence national policy on the provision of suitable housing for older people, people with disability and their carers • Increase awareness within the general community of best practice home modifications service providers 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase the number of service providers in NSW that are members of MOD.A • Recruit interstate service providers to become members of MOD.A • Increase associate membership of MOD.A • Establish member networks to facilitate the sharing of information and resources • Implement a comprehensive marketing and promotion strategy