

Gold Coast Central Chamber of Commerce Inc.

1 Interpretation

(1) In these Rules—

Act means the Associations Incorporation Act 1981.

present—

(a) at a Board of Management meeting, see Rule 23(6); or

(b) at a general meeting, see Rule 37(2).

(2) A word or expression that is not defined in these Rules, but is defined in the Act has, if the context permits, the meaning given by the Act.

2 Name, Area and Political neutrality

The name of the incorporated Association is the Gold Coast Central Chamber of Commerce Inc. (the Association).

The general area of operation of the Association will be within the area of South East Queensland known as the Gold Coast.

The Association shall be strictly non-party political and non-sectarian.

No member of the Association who holds public office or who has publically announced they are standing or who has become a registered candidate, or its equivalent, for public office such as Council, State or Federal Parliament or a member who acts as a paid or unpaid official in any political party, can hold a position on the Board of Management or be Chairperson of a committee of the Association.

The Association recognizes that persons holding public office such as Councillors, State and Federal Politicians and Senators are elected by local residents and the Association will use its endeavours to treat those elected officials regardless of their political persuasion in a non-political manner and based purely on issues affecting its members.

3 Objects

The objects of the Association are:-

- (a) To promote the economic health of our members and the well-being of both our members and tourists by providing leadership and representation for issues affecting the business community.
- (b) To discuss and deal with any subjects affecting the best interests of members and the community in its region;
- (c) To advance the interests of the commercial community of the Gold Coast. Where it does not conflict with (a), and if it is in the furtherance of the objects generally, to advance the interests of the commercial community of neighbouring suburbs and precincts as well.
- (d) To promote, support, or oppose legislation or other measures affecting the business of its members.
- (e) To give expression to the opinion of members regarding events or proposals affecting the interests of the commercial community of the Gold Coast.
- (f) To watch over and protect the general interests of trade, commerce, industry and civil rights;
- (g) To assist in the development of trade and industry;
- (h) To collect information on all matters of interest to commerce, industry and the community and which may include consultations with professionals, eminent citizens and leaders of industry.
- (i) To consult with and approach Councils, State and Federal Governments on matters affecting its members or the business community generally.
- (j) To form a code of practice whereby the transaction of business may be simplified and facilitated;
- (k) To affiliate with such organisations as the Association may deem fit;
- (l) To conduct or control such forms of entertainment from time to time as would add to the pleasure of citizens, members and visitors;
- (m) To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire land, property or chattels within the area and to sell, lease, sub-lease, or otherwise dispose of such assets. To mortgage such assets and carry out any scheme which is considered to be in the best interests of the Association;
- (n) To appoint three trustees to hold all the property and effects both real and personal of, or belonging to the Association at any time on or subject to such Trusts and provisions as the Association may from time to time appoint;
- (o) Generally to carry on, conduct, do or assist in all or any matters which the Board of Management may deem fit for the encouragement of trade and commerce, or the assistance of members and the Association;
- (p) To assist in raising money for charity and/or non-profit organisations and to undertake and partake in charitable and non-profit events.
- (q) To set up a system of governance within the Association so that areas of the Gold Coast may have their own committee operating within the organisational structure of the Association to attend to local matters including but not limited to delivering and providing networking opportunities, surveys, information, events and other services to local businesses in furtherance of the objects of the Association.

4 Powers

- (1) The Association has the powers of an individual.
- (2) The Association may, for example—
 - (a) enter into contracts; and
 - (b) acquire, hold, deal with and dispose of property; and
 - (c) make charges for services and facilities it supplies; and
 - (d) do other things necessary or convenient to be done in carrying out its affairs including the hiring of staff or contractors.
 - (e) obtain or maintain membership in any other organisation that the Association considers desirable in furthering its objects.
 - (f) enter into any arrangements with any Government or Authority that are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects and the exercise of the powers of the Association
 - (g) obtain from any such Government or Authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Association may think is desirable to obtain; and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions;
 - (h) take any gift of property whether subject to any special trust or not, for any one or more of the objects of the Association;
 - (i) raise funds by promotions, holding events, selling or accepting sponsorships and in any other manner consistent with these Rules and that will not give rise to a credible allegation of conflict of interest with the objects;
 - (j) print and publish in paper or electronic form any newspapers, periodicals, newsletters, books or leaflets that the Association may think desirable for the promotion of its objects;
 - (k) appoint, employ, remove or suspend such managers, clerks, secretaries, employees and other persons as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Association;
 - (l) construct, improve, maintain, develop, work, manage, carry out, alter or control any houses, buildings, grounds, works or conveniences which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the associations interests, and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise assist and take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, development, working, management, carrying out, alteration or control thereof;
- (3) The Association may take over the funds, property and other assets and liabilities of any other incorporated associations with which the Association is authorised to amalgamate;
- (4) The Association may transfer all or any part of its property, assets and liabilities to any other incorporated associations with which the association is authorised to amalgamate;
- (5) The Association may take over the funds, property and other assets and liabilities of any other incorporated associations having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Association and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income or property among its members to an extent at least as great as that imposed upon the Association under or by virtue of Rule 49 and to accept the membership, funds and assets of any such incorporated (or previously incorporated) association.
- (6) The Association may also issue secured and unsecured notes, debentures and debenture stock for the Association.
- (7) To do all such lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects and the exercise of the powers of the Association.

5 Classes of members

- (1) Any company, firm or person engaged in business or a profession or any director or executive officer of a public institution connected with commerce or industry, shall be eligible for membership of the Association.
- (2) The number of ordinary members is unlimited.
- (3) The Board of Management may provide additional designations to ordinary memberships such as premium, platinum, silver, gold or any other such designations for the purposes of providing various benefits and establishing various levels of membership fees.
- (4) Although more than one representative may be entitled to attend functions; each financial ordinary member will have only one (1) vote at any meeting of the members.
- (5) The Board of Management may grant honorary membership to any person, corporation or firm distinguished in public affairs, commerce or finance or any person, corporation or firm the Board of management considers desirable, for a period which the Board of Management determines who will be entitled to all the privileges of an ordinary member save the privilege of voting at meetings.
- (6) The Association may grant honorary life memberships in recognition of special or meritorious services to the Association and such person, corporation or organisation shall thereupon be entitled to all the privileges of an ordinary member, including the right to vote at meetings, but will not be required to pay a subscription. An honorary life member is granted membership by a general resolution of the Association after a recommendation by the Board of Management.

6 Automatic membership

A person who, on the day the Association is incorporated, was a member of one of the constituent associations and who, on or before a day fixed by the Board of Management, agrees in writing to become a member of the Association, must be admitted by the Board of Management-

- (a) to the equivalent class of membership of the Association as the member held in the constituent associations; or
- (b) if there is no equivalent class of membership; as an ordinary member.

7 New membership

- (1) An applicant for membership of the Association must be proposed by 1 financial member of the Association (the proposer) and seconded by another financial member (the seconder).
- (2) An application for membership must be—
 - (a) in writing; and
 - (b) signed by the applicant and the applicants proposer and seconder; and
 - (c) in the form decided by the Board of Management.
- (3) Rights conferred on members by law and by these Rules are personal and are not transferable.

8 Membership fees

- (1) The membership fee for each ordinary membership and for each other class or designation of membership (if any)—
 - (a) is the amount decided by the Board of Management from time to time; and
 - (b) is payable when, and in the way, the Board of Management decides.
- (2) A member of the Association who, before becoming a member, has paid the members annual subscription for membership of one or more of the constituent associations, is not liable to pay a further amount of annual subscription for the period before the day fixed by the Board of Management as the day on which the next annual subscription is payable.

9 Admission and rejection of new members

- (1) The Board of Management must consider an application for membership at the next Board of Management meeting held after it receives—
 - (a) the application for membership; and
 - (b) the appropriate membership fee for the application.
- (2) The Board of Management must ensure that, as soon as possible after the person applies to become a member of the Association, and before the Board of Management considers the persons application, the person is advised—
 - (a) whether or not the Association has public liability insurance; and
 - (b) if the Association has public liability insurance—the amount of the insurance.Such notice may be given on any form provided for the making of such applications.
- (3) The Board of Management must decide at the meeting whether to accept or reject the application.
- (4) If a majority of the members of the Board of Management present at the meeting vote to accept the applicant as a member, the applicant must be accepted as a member for the class of membership applied for.
- (5) The secretary of the Association must, as soon as practicable after the Board of Management decides to accept or reject an application, give the applicant a written notice of the decision.

10 When membership ends

- (1) A member may resign from the Association by giving a written notice of resignation to the secretary.
- (2) The resignation takes effect at—
 - (a) the time the notice is received by the secretary; or
 - (b) if a later time is stated in the notice—the later time.
- (3) The Board of Management may terminate a member's membership if the member—
 - (a) is convicted of an indictable offence; or
 - (b) does not comply with any of the provisions of these Rules; or
 - (c) has membership fees in arrears for at least 2 months; or
 - (d) conducts himself or herself in a way considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interests of the Association.
- (4) Before the Board of Management terminates a member's membership, the Board of Management must give the member a full and fair opportunity to show why the membership should not be terminated.
- (5) If, after considering all representations made by the member, the Board of Management decides to terminate the membership, the secretary of the Board of Management must give the member a written notice of the decision.
- (6) Membership will automatically lapse if membership fees are in arrears for over 3 months, but which membership may be reinstated at the discretion of the Board.

11 Appeal against rejection or termination of membership

- (1) A person whose application for membership has been rejected, or whose membership has been terminated, may give the secretary written notice of the person's intention to appeal against the decision.
- (2) A notice of intention to appeal must be given to the secretary within 1 month after the person receives written notice of the decision.
- (3) If the secretary receives a notice of intention to appeal, the secretary must, within 1 month after receiving the notice, call a general meeting to decide the appeal.

12 General meeting to decide appeal

- (1) The general meeting to decide an appeal must be held within 3 months after the secretary receives the notice of intention to appeal.
- (2) At the meeting, the applicant must be given a full and fair opportunity to show why the application should not be rejected or the membership should not be terminated.
- (3) Also, the Board of Management and the members of the Board of Management who rejected the application or terminated the membership must be given a full and fair opportunity to show why the application should be rejected or the membership should be terminated.
- (4) An appeal must be decided by a majority vote of the members present and eligible to vote at the meeting.
- (5) If a person whose application for membership has been rejected does not appeal against the decision within 1 month after receiving written notice of the decision, or the person appeals but the appeal is unsuccessful, the secretary must, as soon as practicable, refund the membership fee paid by the person.

13 Register of members

- (1) The Board of Management must keep a register of members of the Association.
- (2) The register must include the following particulars for each member—
 - (a) the full name of the member;
 - (b) the postal, residential and business address of the member;
 - (c) the date of admission as a member;
 - (d) the date of death or time of resignation of the member;
 - (e) details about the termination or reinstatement of membership;
 - (f) any other particulars the Board of Management or the members at a general meeting decide.
- (3) The register must be open for inspection by members of the association at all reasonable times.
- (4) The inspection shall be limited to 30 minutes. No copying of the register (other than by the making of handwritten notes) is permitted.
- (5) A member must contact the secretary to arrange an inspection of the register.
- (6) However, the Board of Management may, on the application of a member of the Association, withhold information about the member (other than the members full name) from the register available for inspection if the Board of Management has reasonable grounds for believing the disclosure of the information would put the member at risk of harm.

14 Prohibition on use of information on register of members

- (1) A member of the Association must not—
 - (a) use information obtained from the register of members of the Association to contact, or send material to, another member of the Association for the purpose of advertising for political or religious purposes; or
 - (b) use information obtained from the register of members of the Association to contact, or send material to, another member of the Association for the purpose of advertising for charitable or commercial purposes; or
 - (c) disclose information obtained from the register to someone else, knowing that the information is likely to be used to contact, or send material to, another member of the Association for the purpose of advertising for political, religious, charitable or commercial purposes.
- (2) Sub-rule (1)(b) does not apply if the use or disclosure of the information is approved by the Board of Management of the Association.

15 Appointment or election of secretary

- (1) The secretary must be an individual residing in Queensland, or in another State but not more than 65km from the Queensland border, who is—
- (a) a member of the Association elected by the Association as secretary; or
 - (b) any of the following persons appointed by the Board of Management as secretary—
 - (i) a member of the Associations Board of Management;
 - (ii) another member of the Association;
 - (iii) another person.
- (2) If the Association has not elected an interim officer as secretary for the Association before its incorporation, the members of the Board of Management must ensure a secretary is appointed or elected for the Association within 1 month after incorporation.
- (3) If a vacancy happens in the office of secretary, the members of the Board of Management must ensure a secretary is appointed or elected for the Association within 1 month after the vacancy happens.
- (4) If the Board of Management appoints a person mentioned in subrule (1)(b)(ii) as secretary, other than to fill a casual vacancy on the Board of Management, the person does not become a member of the Board of Management.
- (5) However, if the Board of Management appoints a person mentioned in subrule (1)(b)(ii) as secretary to fill a casual vacancy on the Board of Management, the person becomes a member of the Board of Management.
- (6) If the Board of Management appoints a person mentioned in subrule (1)(b)(iii) as secretary, the person does not become a member of the Board of Management.
- (7) In this Rule - casual vacancy, on a Board of Management, means a vacancy that happens when an elected member of the Board of Management resigns, dies or otherwise stops holding office.

16 Removal of secretary

- (1) The Board of Management of the Association may at any time remove a person appointed by the Board of Management as the secretary.
- (2) If the Board of Management removes a secretary who is a person mentioned in Rule 15(1)(b)(i), the person remains a member of the Board of Management.
- (3) If the Board of Management removes a secretary who is a person mentioned in Rule 15(1)(b) (ii) and who has been appointed to a casual vacancy on the Board of Management under Rule 15(5), the person remains a member of the Board of Management.

17 Functions of secretary

The secretary's functions include, but are not limited to—

- (a) calling meetings of the Association, including preparing notices of a meeting and of the business to be conducted at the meeting in consultation with the president of the Association; and
- (b) keeping minutes of each meeting; and
- (c) keeping copies of all correspondence and other documents relating to the Association; and
- (d) maintaining the register of members of the Association.

18 Membership of Board of Management

- (1) The Board of Management of the Association consists of:-

 - (a) the president
 - (b) the deputy president
 - (c) any one of the vice-presidents
 - (d) the treasurer
 - (e) the secretary
- (2) the Executive shall have the power to act on behalf of the Board of Management between meetings with respect to urgent matters.
- (3) the Executive may meet together at any time, but no business shall be transacted unless a quorum is present and notice of the meeting has been received by members of the Executive.
- (4) at every meeting of the Executive, three members of the Executive shall constitute a quorum.
- (5) the Executive may request the attendance of any member at its meeting for such purposes as it considers fit, but no member so attending shall be entitled to vote.

Constitution – AGM held 25/9/2015. Registration of Amendment: 22/1/2016

(6) the Board of Management may increase the number of the Executive by appointing up to 2 members of the Board of Management to the Executive. That appointment shall lapse at the next annual general meeting.

19 Electing the Board of Management

- (1) A member of the Board of Management may only be elected as follows—
 - (a) any 2 financial members of the Association may nominate another financial member (the candidate) to serve as a member of the Board of Management;
 - (b) the nomination must be—
 - (i) in writing; and
 - (ii) signed by the candidate and the financial members who nominated him or her; and
 - (iii) given to the secretary at least 14 days before the annual general meeting at which the election is to be held;
 - (c) each financial member of the Association present and eligible to vote at the annual general meeting may vote for 1 candidate for each vacant position on the Board of Management;
 - (d) if, at the start of the meeting, there are not enough candidates nominated, nominations may be taken from the floor of the meeting.
- (2) A person may be a candidate only if the person—
 - (a) is an adult; and
 - (b) is not ineligible to be elected as a member under section 61A of the Act.
- (3) A member of the Association cannot nominate for a position on the Board of Management if they have been in the immediate year previously, a member of the Board of Management and failed to attend at least 50% or more of the meetings of the Board of Management held during the year of their membership.
- (4) A list of the candidate's names in alphabetical order, with the names of the members who nominated each candidate, must be posted in a conspicuous place in the office or usual place of meeting of the association for at least 7 days immediately preceding the annual general meeting.
- (5) If required by the Board of Management, balloting lists must be prepared containing the names of the candidates in alphabetical order.
- (6) The Board of Management must ensure that, before a candidate is elected as a member of the Board of Management, the candidate is advised—
 - (a) whether or not the Association has public liability insurance; and
 - (b) if the Association has public liability insurance—the amount of the insurance.Such notice may be given on any form provided for the making of such applications.

20 Resignation, removal or vacation of office of Board of Management member

- (1) A member of the Board of Management may resign from the Board of Management by giving written notice of resignation to the secretary.
- (2) The resignation takes effect at—
 - (a) the time the notice is received by the secretary; or
 - (b) if a later time is stated in the notice—the later time.
- (3) A member may be removed from office at a general meeting of the Association if a majority of the members present and eligible to vote at the meeting vote in favour of removing the member.
- (4) Before a vote of members is taken about removing the member from office, the member must be given a full and fair opportunity to show cause why he or she should not be removed from office.
- (5) A member has no right of appeal against the member's removal from office under this Rule.
- (6) A member immediately vacates the office in the circumstances mentioned in sec.64(2) of the Act.
- (7) A member of the Board of Management who is absent without leave for 3 meetings (calculated cumulatively) of the Board of Management is deemed to have resigned at the third meeting.
- (8) The Board of Management can grant a leave of absence to a member of the Board of Management for any term it thinks fit.

(9) Where a leave of absence is granted to the president, the deputy president may fill the position and if the deputy president is not available, the Board of Management can appoint an acting president who shall have all the same powers, obligations and rights of the president.

(10) A leave of absence can only be granted to a member of the Board of Management if they are unable to attend a Board of Management meeting owing to:-

- (a) personal or family ill health serious enough to warrant granting such leave
- (b) the member is overseas or interstate or intrastate more than 75 kilometres from the place of meeting
- (c) the member having to attend another unavoidable and non-reschedulable business meeting. For the Board to consider this leave application, the request for leave under 20 (10) (c) must be provided to the Secretary at least 48 hours prior to the Board meeting.

21 Vacancies on the Board of Management

(1) If a casual vacancy happens on the Board of Management, the continuing members of the Board of Management may appoint another financial member of the Association to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting, (unless appointed pursuant to Rule 18(8)).

(2) The continuing members of the Board of Management may act despite a casual vacancy on the Board of Management.

(3) However, if the number of Board members is less than the number fixed under Rule 24(1) as a quorum of the Board of Management, the continuing members may act only to—

- (a) increase the number of Board of Management members to the number required for a quorum; or
- (b) call a general meeting of the Association.

22 Functions of the Board of Management

(1) Subject to these Rules or a resolution of the members of the Association carried at a general meeting, the Board of Management has the general control and management of the administration of the affairs, property and funds of the Association.

(2) The Board of Management has authority to interpret the meaning of these Rules and any matter relating to the Association on which the Rules are silent, but any interpretation must have regard to the Act, including any regulation made under the Act.

Note—

The Act prevails if the Associations Rules are inconsistent with the Act—see section 1B of the Act.

(3) The Board of Management may exercise the powers of the Association—

- (a) to borrow, raise or secure the payment of amounts in a way the members of the Association decide; and
- (b) to secure the amounts mentioned in paragraph (a) or the payment or performance of any debt, liability, contract, guarantee or other engagement incurred or to be entered into by the Association in any way, including by the issue of debentures (perpetual or otherwise) charged upon the whole or part of the Association's property, both present and future; and
- (c) to purchase, redeem or pay off any securities issued; and
- (d) to borrow amounts from members and pay interest on the amounts borrowed; and
- (e) to mortgage or charge the whole or part of its property; and
- (f) to issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Association; and
- (g) to provide and pay off any securities issued; and
- (h) to invest in a way the members of the Association may from time to time decide.

- (4) For sub-rule (3)(d), the rate of interest must not be more than the current rate being charged for overdrawn accounts on money lent (regardless of the term of the loan) by—
- (a) the financial institution for the Association; or
 - (b) if there is more than 1 financial institution for the Association—the financial institution nominated by the Board of Management.
- (5) Where a member of the Board of Management holds a position with responsibilities and duties assigned, the member is responsible for the effective management and reporting of those duties at each and every meeting of the Board of Management.

23 Meetings of the Board of Management

- (1) Subject to this Rule, the Board of Management may meet and conduct its proceedings as it considers appropriate.
- (2) The Board of Management must meet at least once every calendar month, except January, to exercise its functions.
- (3) The Board of Management must decide how a meeting is to be called.
- (4) Notice of a meeting is to be given in the way decided by the Board of Management.
- (5) The Board of Management may hold meetings, or permit a Board member to take part in its meetings, by using any technology that reasonably allows the member to hear and take part in discussions as they happen.
- (6) A Board member who participates in the meeting as mentioned in subrule (5) is taken to be present at the meeting.
- (7) A question arising at a Board meeting is to be decided by a majority vote of members of the Board present at the meeting and, if the votes are equal, the chairperson has a casting vote as well as a primary vote.
- (8) A member of the Board of Management must not vote on a question about a contract or proposed contract with the Association if the member has an interest in the contract or proposed contract and, if the member does vote, the members vote must not be counted.
- (9) The president is to preside as chairperson at a Board of Management meeting unless the president has appointed another Board member as chairperson.
- (10) If there is no president the deputy president is to preside as chairperson at a Board meeting unless the deputy president has appointed another Board member as chairperson.
- (11) If there is no president or deputy president or a chairperson has not been appointed or they are not present within 10 minutes after the time fixed for a Board of Management meeting, the Board members may choose 1 of their number to preside as chairperson at the meeting.

24 Quorum for, and adjournment of, Board of Management meeting

- (1) At a Board of Management meeting, more than 40% of the members elected to the Board as at the close of the last general meeting of the members form a quorum.
- (2) If there is no quorum within 30 minutes after the time fixed for a Board of Management meeting called on the request of members of the Board, the meeting lapses.
- (3) If there is no quorum within 30 minutes after the time fixed for a Board of Management meeting called other than on the request of the members of the Board—
- (a) the meeting is to be adjourned for at least 1 day; and
 - (b) the members of the Board of Management who are present are to decide the day, time and place of the adjourned meeting.
- (4) If, at an adjourned meeting mentioned in subrule (3), there is no quorum within 30 minutes after the time fixed for the meeting, the meeting lapses.

25 Special meeting of Board of Management

- (1) If the secretary receives a written request signed by at least 33% of the members of the Board of Management or the Executive, the secretary must call a special meeting of the Board by giving each member of the Board notice of the meeting within 14 days after the secretary receives the request.
- (2) If the secretary is unable or unwilling to call the special meeting, the president must call the meeting.
- (3) A request for a special meeting must state—
 - (a) why the special meeting is called; and
 - (b) the business to be conducted at the meeting.
- (4) A notice of a special meeting must state—
 - (a) the day, time and place of the meeting; and
 - (b) the business to be conducted at the meeting
- (5) A special meeting of the Board of Management must be held within 14 days after notice of the meeting is given to the members of the Board of Management.

26 Minutes of Board of Management meetings

- (1) The secretary must ensure full and accurate minutes of all questions, matters, resolutions and other proceedings of each Board of Management meeting are entered in a minute book.
- (2) To ensure the accuracy of the minutes, the minutes of each Board of Management meeting must be signed by the chairperson of the meeting, or the chairperson of the next Board of Management meeting, verifying their accuracy.

27 Appointment of Committees

- (1) The Board of Management may appoint a committee consisting of financial members of the Association considered appropriate by the Board to help with the conduct of the Association's operations.
- (2) The Board of Management may appoint committees consisting of financial members of the Association considered appropriate by the Board to deliver services, information, make recommendations, coordinate events and to help with the conduct of the Association's operations in particular designated suburbs, electoral boundaries, geographical areas or to deal with particular issues within the general area of operation of the Association. The Board of Management may choose the chairperson of such a committee. If appropriate, and with approval of the Board of Management, a committee may use the services of volunteers or non-members to assist in carrying out its functions. Volunteers or non-members may engage in deliberations on matters before a committee but may not vote.
- (3) A member of the committee who is not a member of the Board of Management is not entitled to vote at a Board of Management meeting.
- (4) A committee may elect a chairperson of its meetings if not already chosen by the Board of Management under clause 27 (2)
- (5) If a chairperson is not elected, or if the chairperson is not present within 10 minutes after the time fixed for a meeting, the members present may choose 1 of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
- (6) A committee may meet and adjourn as it considers appropriate.
- (7) A question arising at a committee meeting is to be decided by a majority vote of the members present at the meeting and, if the votes are equal, the chairperson has a casting vote as well as a primary vote.

28 Acts not affected by defects or disqualifications

- (1) An act performed by the Board of Management, a committee or a person acting as a member of the Board of Management is taken to have been validly performed.
- (2) Sub-rule (1) applies even if the act was performed when—
 - (a) there was a defect in the appointment of a member of the Board of Management, committee or person acting as a member of the Board of Management; or
 - (b) a Board of Management member, committee member or person acting as a member of the Board of Management was disqualified from being a member.

29 Resolutions of Board of Management without meeting

- (1) A written resolution signed by each member of the Board of Management is as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a Board meeting that was properly called and held.
- (2) A resolution mentioned in sub-rule (1) may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by 1 or more members of the Board.
