

Sentencing and Parole Project

Do you know how to serve your Black clients who are facing sentencing and parole but are negatively impacted by poverty and racial inequality?

The Sentencing and Parole Project is an organization that helps to prepare enhanced pre-sentence reports (EPSRs) to help give the courts concrete information to truly understand all of the circumstances that can lead a client to being involved in a criminal offence.

In this crucial CPD program, you will learn about:

- the history of EPSRs and the SPP
- the impact of EPSRs on court decisions
- what an EPSR covers
- what an EPSR costs
- the process of obtaining an EPSR

Speakers

- Jacquie Pemberton
- Michelle Richards
