How to Enrol

Visit our College website to download an application form, or collect in person from the College Reception.

Application for Enrolment

Return completed application forms along with copies of the most recent school reports, birth certificate, and any applicable documentation required.

Interview

Prior to offers of enrolment, prospective students and their parents will be required to attend an interview 18 months prior to the commencement year, with a member of the College Leadership team.

Offers of Enrolment

Once we have completed the meeting process and considered all the applications for a particular intake, successful applicants will receive a letter with an offer of enrolment.
