

Francesca

Francesca had several old composite resin fillings which were stained, discoloured and decaying. We replaced her fillings with nice new composite resin restorations which has restored her teeth back to good health and has given her a much nicer smile.