

Judy

Judy was unhappy with the colour of her crowns on the upper left side and the natural colour of the front teeth. She also disliked the space on the lower right side because it made it difficult for her to chew on that side of her mouth. To improve the situation we filled the space with a ceramic bridge, and placed ceramic crowns across her front teeth, providing Judy with a beautiful and functional new smile.

