

Kathryn

Kathryn had congenitally missing pre-molar teeth which caused spacing between her other teeth. Upper and lower orthodontics moved the teeth into a alignment and four upper composite veneers helped to achieve a beautiful straight smile without the need to replace the missing teeth.

