

Ken

Ken had previously had a ceramic bridge placed across his upper front teeth. His lower front teeth were heavily worn and sensitive. Ken wanted to have the bridge replaced on the upper teeth and resin build ups placed across the lower front teeth to improve on the appearance and to help prevent further wear and destruction of his natural tooth structure.

