

Maria

Maria had a number of missing teeth and wanted a permanent option to replace her partial denture. After bone grafting to improve the contour of the upper gum line, ceramic crowns and bridges were placed on the upper teeth to fill the gaps and improve the appearance of the remaining teeth. The result is an even, natural smile which is permanent and eliminates the need for the removable denture.