

Matty

Matty had a very narrow, underdeveloped jaw leaving him with 'bucky', crowded teeth. Upper and lower expansion appliances were used to develop the jaw and create space for the teeth to realign. At this stage no fixed orthodontics have been used but this remains an option to correct the mild lower crowding in the future.

