

Mitch

Mitch had badly decayed, broken teeth.. He chose to have a number of teeth removed and a partial upper and lower denture made to replace the missing teeth. By keeping some of his own natural teeth, Mitch can use the small metal clasps from the denture to attach to his own teeth and minimise the mobility that is common with full dentures.