

Natasha

Natasha's jaw had been broken in an accident. Some of the teeth had been damaged and she was unable to maintain good oral hygiene during her post surgery healing. A combination of root canal treatment to save some teeth, resin restorations to remove decay and crowns to stabilize the broken teeth has allowed Natasha to regain her smile and her dental health.