

Trish

Trish had a very narrow upper jaw and suffered from headaches and TMJ pain. She had a very 'small' smile and felt that her teeth were 'bucky'. She chose to have orthopaedic orthodontics to develop her upper jaw and Invisalign to realign her teeth. She then had 8 upper porcelain veneers placed to improve the shape and colour of her natural teeth. The result was a stunning broader, more even smile.