

Val

Val had gradually lost teeth over the years and never bothered to replace them. She had no bone in the back areas to place single implants and she didn't like the appearance of her remaining teeth. We used all on X upper and lower with fixed ceramic prosthesis to achieve a final result that not only allows her to eat normally but also allows her the confidence to smile again.