

Wayne

Wayne attended the practice with broken and decayed teeth, and a missing tooth on his upper left side. To improve his appearance and the health of his mouth we placed a bridge to fill the space on the upper left, and restored the areas of decay with resin restorations. Wayne now smiles with confidence again.