

AHI protects what matters most.
We cover your children while at school or out in the community.

Student Accident policy

Wherever your children are in the world, AHI will make sure they are covered.

Concern for the safety of our children is constant. Should the unthinkable happen, the one thing you won't need to worry about is the financial aspects of an accident. AHI have you covered so you can focus on what matters most - your child.

Whether your children are at home, school or participating in extra-curricular activities, AHI has your children covered in case of Accident, Accidental Death and Permanent Disability.

Lump-sum benefit

If the unthinkable should happen, we will provide a payment for accidental death or permanent disability.

Additional payments

In the case of other accidents we will provide payment for Broken Bones, Loss of Teeth, Emergency Transport and more*.

Non-income earner payments

Support for student tutorial benefits for full-time students.

Non-Medicare medical expenses*

Not all medical expenses are covered by Medicare, so let AHI take care of the rest.

Why AHI?

When you choose AHI, you get an expert team of specialists dedicated to protecting what matters most to you, who will work around the clock to support you if trouble should strike. It's the AHI advantage.

- Our underwriting and claims performance standards are externally focused and written with your needs in mind.
- We audit our work against our performance to ensure we're delivering you the best possible service.
- Our products have broader scope to suit some of the most unique needs.
- Our policies are designed by one of Australia's most experienced underwriting agencies and backed by Tokio Marine, one of the largest global insurers.
