

STEM (Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics) is an ongoing focus area at St Joseph's School.

STEM is not a set curriculum which is part of the Australian Curriculum but rather, STEM is the teaching of the four disciplines of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics and exploring opportunities for the integration of these four subjects through a problem solving based approach to learning.