

Agency Practice Standards

Self-Assessment Template

Purpose

This checklist is a tool to help agencies to assess their compliance with the Agency Practice Standards for Financial Counselling.

Who should use this checklist?

Any agency that offers financial counselling services should use this checklist.

When should this checklist be used?

We recommend that the checklist is used each year to check for compliance with the Agency Practice Standards.

The checklist format

The checklist format allows the agency to tick a column to show that the standards are being achieved or not achieved. There is room for the agency to comment on the rating and/or set out the evidence that underpins the rating.

STANDARD 1 – KEY SERVICE FEATURES

1.1. Service is free to clients

The agency does not impose any fees or charges upon clients in relation to any aspect of the financial counselling service.
This will be achieved by:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
1.1.1. Ensuring that the agency, and each person acting on its behalf, does not request or accept payment of any fees or charges by clients.
If the boxes above are not able to be ticked, please indicate what actions that Agency will take to ensure it meets this standard:

1.2. Service is free of conflict of interest

The agency ensures that financial counselling services are provided free of any conflict of interest.
This will be achieved by:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
1.2.1. The agency does not place itself in a position where a relationship with a third party could be seen to conflict with its obligation to provide independent financial counselling services to its clients.
1.2.2. The agency does not accept a client where the relationship between an individual staff member and a third party could be seen to conflict with the agency's obligation to provide independent financial counselling services to that client. Staff in the agency have a duty to disclose such conflicts.
1.2.3. The agency does not accept a client where the interests of an individual staff member could be seen to conflict with the agency's obligation to provide independent financial counselling services to that client.
1.2.4. The agency does not accept a client where providing services to that client could be seen to conflict with its obligation to a previous or existing client.

1.7.1. The financial counsellor has a hard copy of the Code or the agency makes an electronic copy of the Code available.
1.7.2. The financial counsellor has access to appropriate training about the Code.
1.7.3. If ethical dilemmas arise, the Code is one mechanism used to help resolve them.
If the boxes above are not able to be ticked, please indicate what actions that Agency will take to ensure it meets this standard:

1.8. Service integrates casework with policy and systemic advocacy

The agency ensures that casework experience is used to inform its policy and advocacy activities and that of other advocacy bodies.
This will be achieved by:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
1.8.1. Encouraging and supporting financial counsellors to identify policy issues and advocacy opportunities arising from their casework.
1.8.2. Encouraging and supporting financial counsellors, in ways consistent with the agencies own policies and practices, to contribute to policy development and advocacy opportunities with other organisations.
If the boxes above are not able to be ticked, please indicate what actions that Agency will take to ensure it meets this standard:

2. STANDARD 2 – CLIENTS: INTAKE, CASEWORK AND REFERRAL

2.1. Use appropriate intake procedures

The agency uses a systematic and comprehensive intake procedure for all financial counselling clients that assesses the client’s broader needs and ensures that financial counselling is offered only when it is the best option for the client.

This will be achieved by:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
2.1.1. Having a documented process that describes how <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • clients’ needs are assessed • clients’ cases are prioritised, including identifying urgent matters and how they will be dealt with • services are matched to clients’ needs
2.1.2. Ensuring staff inform the client about the services the agency is able to offer and support the client to make an informed choice about whether to participate in the service.
2.1.3. Ensuring staff refer the client for other services as appropriate to address broader needs.

2.2. Provide casework in a way that builds client capacity

The agency delivered a service that builds the capacity and self-sufficiency of the client in managing their current and future financial issues.

This will be achieved by:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
2.2.1. The service maximises the client’s participation in planning, decision-making and the resolution of issues, so that the client determines the course of action.
2.2.2. That staff assist the client to further understand the cause of their financial problems, identify changes to minimise further financial problems and build financial capability.

2.3. Conduct casework according to good financial counselling practice

The agency ensures that the casework it conducts reflects good financial counselling practice.

This will be achieved by:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
2.3.1. The agency provides a range of resources and tools to assist staff to provide a service that reflects good financial counselling practice including triage tools, and checklists.
2.3.2. In each case, consideration is given as to whether the client is liable for the debts that are alleged to be owing, and if owing, whether the amount is correctly calculated.
2.3.3. The agency supports the financially counsellor to act as an advocate when negotiating with third parties.
2.3.4. Where appropriate, the agency works collaboratively with other support workers who are assisting the client.

2.3.5. The agency has procedures in place to deal with the situation where the client's ability to provide instructions is uncertain.
2.3.6. The service provided is within the confines of a financial counselling service and does not exceed it.
2.3.7. The agency has appropriate procedures in place to review the filework conducted by financial counsellors.

2.4. Provide appropriate referrals

The agency should provide an effective referral service for clients who need other services in addition to financial counselling or where financial counselling is not the most appropriate service.

	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment
2.4.1. Maintaining up to date information about legal, health, social and support services that are able to accept referrals.
2.4.2. Liaising with legal, health, social and support services to develop referral pathways to assist clients to access those services.

2.4.3. Using warm referrals to assist clients to contact other services in cases where that is necessary.

The agency has an effective system for handling complaints.
This will be achieved by:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
2.5.1. Having a documented complaint handling process that is fair, accessible, responsive and efficient.
2.5.2. Ensuring that clients are aware of their right to make a complaint and how to go about it.

3. STANDARD 3 – HUMAN AND PHYSICAL RESOURCES

3.1. Engage qualified financial counsellors

The agency engages qualified financial counsellors who have appropriate training and experience, or who, once employed, obtain the relevant qualification.

This will be achieved by ensuring that each staff member who provides financial counselling services for an agency:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
3.1.1. Has undergone induction training with the agency.
3.1.2. Is a member of, or is eligible to be a member of, the financial counselling association in the state or territory in which the financial counsellor works.
3.1.3. Holds a Diploma of Community Services (Financial Counselling) or is actively studying for this qualification.
3.1.4. Has the level of skills and knowledge sufficient to provide good quality financial counselling services having regard to the type of service that person provides and having regard to the level of financial counselling expertise and the level of professional supervision available to that person.

3.1.5. Is committed to offering services that are non-judgmental and in the best interests of the client and adequately understands both the personal and systemic causes of financial hardship and the impact financial difficulty can have on an individual's life.

3.2. Support professional development

The agency supports the professional development of financial counsellors who deliver services on its behalf. In particular the agency ensures that financial counsellors are provided with opportunities for ongoing professional development and professional networking.

This will be achieved by:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
3.2.1. Providing access to the necessary information resources so that financial counsellors can maintain and improve their skills and knowledge.
3.2.2. Supporting financial counsellors to continue their professional development by encouraging their attendance at professional development seminars, courses, conferences and other events that meet the requirements for membership set by state and territory financial counselling bodies. This support should include release from usual duties to attend such events during ordinary working hours and payment of reasonable costs for such events.

3.2.3. Supporting financial counsellors to participate in state and territory financial counselling bodies. This support should include supporting staff to attend professional development opportunities, professional networks or conferences organised by these bodies and, where appropriate, supporting staff to take up positions of responsibility within professional associations.
3.2.4. Supporting financial counsellors to participate in reflective practice, including facilitating access to programs outside the agency.

4.1.2. Providing regular opportunities for debriefing and, where necessary, critical incident debriefing

4.2. Provide a safe workplace

The agency provides a physical environment that is healthy and safe and suitable for the requirements of financial counselling.

This will be achieved by:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
4.2.1. Providing a safe physical environment. In particular, all areas used for contact with clients should be subject to a risk assessment, and appropriate steps taken to minimise or eliminate risks to safety, for example, due to aggressive behaviours by clients.

4.2.2. Each agency should ensure that they have policies and procedures that cover the safety and security of staff working outside of the office.

4.3. Ensure workloads are manageable and appropriate

The agency ensures that the workload of each staff member is manageable having regard to the level of skill, experience and any special employment arrangements for that staff member.
This will be achieved by:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
4.3.1. Ensuring that workloads generally, as well as caseloads specifically, are reasonable and established in consultation and negotiation with the financial counsellor.

5. STANDARD 5 – RECORD KEEPING

5.1. Maintain accurate client records

The agency has in place a system for opening, maintaining and closing client files that allows keeping of accurate records in relation to each matter where it provides financial counselling services.

This will be achieved by:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
5.1.1. Opening a file for each client. 5.1.2. Maintaining a central record of each file opened that allocates a unique identifier such as a number, code or name to each file. 5.1.3. Maintaining an orderly system for the storage of files so that files can be easily located and retrieved. 5.1.4. Maintaining a diary or bring-up system to ensure that important dates and time limits are identified and that files receive regular attention. 5.1.5. Maintaining a system for the closure of files to ensure that files are reviewed prior to closure. 5.1.6. Notifying clients in writing that their file has

been closed, explaining why the file has been closed, how the file will be stored and for how long, enclosing any relevant correspondence and confirming, where feasible, that creditors have been notified. 5.1.7. Where feasible, notifying creditors that the client's file has been closed, that the agency is no longer acting for the client and any third party authorities are revoked. 5.1.8. Maintaining an archiving system that allows closed files to be retrieved within a reasonable period of time. 5.1.9. Ensuring that records are kept for the period of time required by the legislation that applies to those records.
---	--	--	--

5.2. Keep complete and legible files

The agency keeps complete and legible records in relation to each matter where it provides financial counselling services.
This will be achieved by ensuring files contain:	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comment/Evidence
